

I do not support any changes to Wisconsin's do not call list. I do not understand how you could even consider relaxing regulations or making exceptions for special interests. I would go a step further and change the law so that consumers would automatically be placed on the "no call" list unless they specifically request to be on telemarketing lists. Do what the citizens of Wisconsin want, not annoying and slimy business interests.